

PC Leasing

The “Green” Alternative

Michele P. Mahon, CPPB

Information Technology
Management Office

Advantages of Leasing

- No disposal problems
- Usually old equipment is recycled in needy areas
- Lowers cost of recycling electronics

Who Currently Leases

- Berkeley County Government
- Berkeley County Schools
- Charleston County Parks & Recreation Commission
- City of Greenville
- Clemson University
- College of Charleston
- County of Charleston
- Darlington Police Department
- Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce
- Lander University
- McBee Elementary School
- Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC)
- Mount Pleasant Water Works
- Orangeburg Consolidated School District #5
- Piedmont Technical College
- SC Attorney General's Office
- SC Department of Commerce
- SC Department of Corrections
- SC Department of Education
- SC Department of Health & Environmental Control
- SC Department of Insurance
- SC Department of Juvenile Justice
- SC Department of Motor Vehicles
- SC Department of Parks, Recreation & Tourism
- SC Department of Revenue
- SC Department of Social Services
- SC Department of Transportation
- SC Division of the State CIO
- SC Employment Security Commission
- SC Governor's School
- SC Probation, Parole & Pardon Services
- SC School for the Deaf & Blind
- SC State University
- State Accident Fund
- State of SC Administrative Law Court
- State of SC Office of the Comptroller General
- State of SC Office of the Secretary of State
- The Defender Corporation of Horry County
- Town of Summerville
- Town of Ware Shoals
- Tri County Technical College
- Tri County Comm on Alcohol & Drug Abuse
- USC – College of Nursing
- USC – Division of Human Resources
- USC – Office of the President
- USC - Office of Undergraduate Admissions
- USC – Regional Campus & Continuing Education
- USC - Union
- USC - Upstate
- York Technical College

Disadvantages of Leasing

- Sales Tax
- Leasing Agency Owns the Equipment
- No Trade-In Value

Conclusion

- Consider all options when preparing to purchase new computers.
- Consider Leasing, it can be more economical